

INVITATION

Eszterházy Károly College in Eger kindly invites you to share your experience and knowledge with educators and other professionals of international education at the international conference entitled to be held on 3-5 June, 2014 at Eszterházy Károly College in Eger, Hungary.

International Strategies in Higher Education

The conference provides a multinational platform for presenting the latest trends in international cooperation in higher education and discussing experience, difficulties and best practice in a friendly environment. The series of workshops and social events also offer a valuable occasion for developing and strengthening the participants' international relations.

Prospective presenters are encouraged to submit papers for the following section topics:

1. Joint and double degree programs – Identifying the right programs and partners (EN)
2. Differences or difficulties? – Accreditation of international programs in Hungary (EN/HU)
3. Smuggling intercultural elements into the classroom (EN)
4. Enhancing learning performance – Foreign language teaching and language exam systems (EN)
5. Fundraising for internationalization in Higher Education (EN)
6. E-Learning as a tool for internationalization (EN)
7. International office management – work splitting and organizing (EN)
8. International comparative studies on inclusive education (HU/EN)

Accepted papers will be published in the conference book as well. For paper guidelines please refer to the Paper Guidelines section of our website.
